WHAT PARTICIPANTS HAVE SAID...

"I was surprised by how quickly toning with clear intentions and putting these out to the universe brings manifestation. I have experienced joy and unlimited expression in my painting while infusing the pieces with the vibrations that I have received from the Universe."

Linda Rodriguez

"What I do know is that 'finding' each of you has profoundly changed my life and brought a richness and depth of love I'd not known in a group experience before."

Chris Kwak

"At Sound School, community is revealed to be a sacred place of shared meaning, trust in others, mutual support, creative, interacting energy that spirals each of its members higher into their at once shared and unique selves."

Judy Cassidy

"The Sound Mystery School dissolved the barnacles encrusted around my mind, heart and soul to reveal the truth of who I am. I have never felt more fully alive and in the flow of life."

Nelson Sears

"EarthSong Sound Mystery School was a positive, life changing experience. The continuing personal growth is phenomenal and doesn't stop with the end of the school."

The School offers each person the opportunity, through sacred sound, to experience the resonance of Divine Mystery.

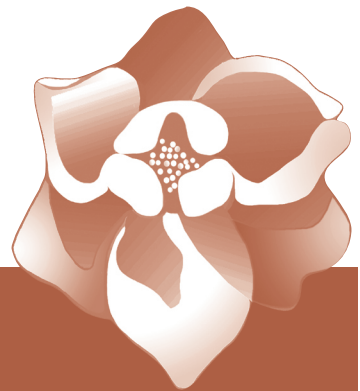

INSPIRATION

When Joseph Rael came to Three Rivers, Michigan for the dedication of EarthSong Peace/Sound Chamber in 2002, he announced that we had a sound school here, and we realized that a sound mystery school had already begun. We laughed and realized that we had been given an “assignment.” The 2009-2010 program will be the seventh year of the school. EarthSong Peace/Sound Chamber (www.earthsongpeace.com) is one of many in a global network, all utilizing sacred sound in various ways. We are the only one that has a formal sound school.
